South Australia Aboriginal Education and Training Consultative Council (SAAETCC)

The South Australian Aboriginal Education and Training Consultative Council (SAAETCC) is the peak consultative council responsible for engaging with Aboriginal people and community in South Australia. The focus is to represent the interests of Aboriginal South Australians at all levels of education and training. SAAETCC ensures that the Aboriginal community voice is present and respected when making decisions concerning all aspects of education that impact on the lives and welfare of Aboriginal South Australians.

In partnership with community, SAAETCC develops and provides high quality advice to support continual improvements in the provision of education and training and its associated opportunities for Aboriginal people in South Australia.

All South Australian Aboriginal peoples have the opportunity to participate in high quality, culturally sensitive and competent education and training systems. SAAETCC's focus is to enable Aboriginal people engaged in education and training to realise their full potential, personal ambitions and life long learning aspirations.

SAAETCC Vision

South Australian Aboriginal Education and Training Consultative Committee is an active, powerful and influential consultative council which gives voice and influence for Aboriginal people in education and training. SAAETCC works to support improved educational opportunities and achievements of Aboriginal people in South Australia. SAAETCC relies heavily on the support and involvement of the Aboriginal community of South Australia to achieve this.

Recruitment Process

The South Australian Aboriginal Education and Training Consultative Council has a three stage recruitment process: application, interview and verbal referee report. At each of these stages, applicants are assessed.

1. The application

Once the applications have been received, they will be assessed by a panel to determine the shortlist for interview.

*Applicants shortlisted will be contacted via telephone to arrange an interview.
Applicants not shortlisted will be notified via email.*

2. The interview

The interview provides an opportunity for applicants to talk about their experiences and background relevant to the advertised position. The Interview usually last for approximately 40 minutes and will involve a panel of three interviewers.

3. The Verbal Referee Report

A referee report will be obtained for all applicants who are in serious contention for the position

Once the applicant has accepted the position, unsuccessful applicants will be notified via email.
